

Our Business & Vision

The Constructor Group is a pan European supplier of high quality products combined with first class consultative services.

Constructor Group provides storage, archiving, warehouse logistic solutions for use in factories, warehouses, distribution centers, archives, offices, museums, libraries, medical institutions, retail outlets and numerous other applications.

We want to be the preferred partner of our customers within our business sector through offering solutions and services that are individually optimised to surpass the expectations of our customers and excel in quality, innovation and efficiency.

“Constructor Group – your partner for optimised storage solutions”